

I am opposed to the Consumers Bankers Association challenge to the Indiana Telephone privacy law. I have a right to my privacy and to initiate all contacts with any business and to be left alone at home if I do not want them